Step 2. Copyright and proprietary content in your thesis

You must identify copyright material and other content in your thesis which you do not have the right to make publicly accessible for proprietary or legal reasons. This may include for example third party owned images, data compilations or substantial amounts of text such as published articles. Please identify such material in the table below so that Library staff can exclude it from the openly accessible version of your thesis. Visit the Library's Submitting your Thesis web page for more information: <http://www.utas.edu.au/library/finding-information/digital-thesis-repository/submitting-your-thesis>

[illegible]

Step 3. Access to your thesis

UTAS will make your thesis publicly accessible online UNLESS you as the author request that UTAS restrict access.

If you wish access to your thesis to be restricted, please complete the following:

I request UTAS to restrict full text access to my thesis for a period of 1 ☒ Years ☐ Months

*Note: Access cannot be restricted for more than 2 years without prior approval from the Dean of Graduate Research.
Please provide reasons for the consideration of the Dean when requesting more than 2 years.*

Step 4. Declaration by you as the Author

I warrant that the electronic version of my thesis, as provided, does not infringe the copyright of any person.

I give UTAS (or its agents) an irrevocable non-exclusive licence to reproduce and communicate the electronic version of my thesis in all forms of media, now or hereafter known.

I certify that the electronic version of my thesis, as provided, is a direct equivalent of my printed thesis approved by the University for the award of the degree.
